

K Scan AI Privacy Policy

Effective Date: April 27, 2026 | Last Updated: April 27, 2026

Privacy Summary

K Scan AI is built privacy-first. We collect only what is needed to run the service, process scans, and communicate with you. Fashion scans are processed on-device where possible, or through encrypted cloud systems when needed. We do not sell your personal information.

1. Introduction

K Scan AI (“K Scan,” “we,” “our,” or “us”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you use our website, mobile application, and related services (collectively, the “Service”).

2. Information We Collect

A. Information You Provide

We may collect information you provide directly to us, including:

- Name, if provided voluntarily
- Email address, including for waitlist signup or communications
- Account credentials, where applicable
- Messages, support inquiries, feedback, or other communications you send to us

B. Social Login Information

If you choose to sign in using a third-party provider such as Google Sign-In or Apple ID, we may receive your name, email address, and profile identifier. We only access the information necessary to authenticate your account and operate the Service.

C. Image and Scan Data

When you use K Scan, images may be processed to identify fashion items, style signals, or related product matches. Processing may occur locally on your device and/or through secure cloud systems when needed to deliver the Service. Personally identifiable elements are minimized or masked where technically feasible, and we do not use scan data to identify individuals.

D. Automatically Collected Information

When you access or use the Service, we may automatically collect technical and usage information, including:

- Device type, operating system, and browser information
- IP address and approximate location derived from technical data
- App interactions, log data, diagnostics, and performance information
- Device identifiers, which may include mobile advertising identifiers depending on your settings

You can reset or limit advertising identifier tracking at any time through your device settings. On iOS, go to Settings > Privacy & Security > Tracking. On Android, go to Settings > Google > Ads or the applicable advertising ID controls for your device.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use your information to:

- Provide, operate, and maintain the Service
- Process image scans and generate fashion-related results
- Improve performance, accuracy, safety, and user experience
- Communicate with you about updates, onboarding, support, and account-related matters
- Monitor, secure, and prevent misuse of the Service
- Comply with legal obligations and enforce applicable terms

We do not sell your personal information.

4. How We Share Information

We may share information with the categories of third parties described below.

A. Service Providers

We work with trusted service providers that support core business and product operations, including cloud hosting and infrastructure, analytics and performance monitoring, email delivery and user communications, and security and fraud prevention.

These providers receive only the information necessary to perform their services on our behalf. They are contractually required to process personal data solely in accordance with our instructions and not for their own purposes, in compliance with applicable data protection laws, including GDPR Article 28.

B. Payment Processors

We do not currently process payments. If paid features are introduced in the future, payment processing will be handled by third-party payment processors subject to their own privacy policies and security practices.

C. Legal Requirements

We may disclose information if we believe it is necessary to comply with applicable law, legal process, enforceable governmental request, or to protect the rights, safety, property, or security of K Scan, our users, or others.

D. Business Transfers

If K Scan is involved in a merger, acquisition, financing, reorganization, bankruptcy, or sale of assets, your information may be transferred as part of that transaction, subject to applicable law.

5. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as necessary to provide the Service, fulfill the purposes described in this Privacy Policy, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce agreements. Scan data may be processed transiently and is not stored long-term unless required for product functionality, user-directed saving, service improvement, security, or legal compliance.

6. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on your location, you may have the right to access, correct, delete, restrict, object to the processing of, or request portability of your personal information. To exercise these rights, contact us at privacy@kscan.ai. We may need to verify your identity before responding to your request. EU/EEA users may also lodge a complaint with their national supervisory authority. A directory is available at <https://edpb.europa.eu>.

7. California Privacy Rights (CCPA/CPRA)

California residents may have the right to know what personal information we collect, how we use and disclose it, request deletion or correction, and opt out of the “sale” or “sharing” of personal information as defined by applicable law. We do not sell personal information.

Categories of third parties to whom we may disclose information include hosting providers, analytics providers, communication and email service providers, and security and fraud prevention services. We honor the Global Privacy Control (GPC) signal where required by applicable law.

8. International Data Transfers

Your information may be processed in countries outside your jurisdiction, including the United States. Where required, we implement appropriate safeguards, such as standard contractual clauses or other lawful transfer mechanisms.

9. Security

We implement reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational safeguards designed to protect your information. However, no system can be guaranteed to be completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information.

10. Third-Party Links

The Service may contain links to third-party websites, retailers, platforms, or services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or security of those third parties. We encourage you to review their privacy policies before providing information to them.

11. Children’s Privacy

We do not knowingly collect personal information from anyone under 13 where U.S. federal law (COPPA) applies. If we become aware that such data has been collected, we will take reasonable steps to delete it promptly.

12. GDPR Statement

We have assessed that appointment of a Data Protection Officer is not currently required based on the nature and scale of our data processing activities. If our processing activities change, we will reassess this determination as required by applicable law.

13. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make changes, we will update the “Last Updated” date above and may provide additional notice where required by law.
